STYLE- (Non Denominational Ale) Duck Duck Gooze is truly a labor of love and test of our brewer's patience. DDG is a blend of 1,2 and 3 year old barrels of beer from our oak barrel program. The inclusion of differing vintages will produce a depth of flavors we can't get from single barrels or years.

AVAILABILITY: A specialty release designed to showcase our brewer's blending skills.

DESCRIPTION AND INFORMATION:

AROMA- Tart with hints of oak, leather, Brettanomyces and funk.

TASTE- As with all sour ales, the initial sip wakes up your dull senses. There is an elevated level of Acetic Acids working their magic in this beer. The first sip assaults the palate in an enamel stripping bottom of the pH chain sort of way.

COLOR- Hazy Yellow with white lacing and foam

O.G.- Unknown

FINISH- A jaw crushing pucker that only the most hardcore beer enthusiast can handle

BODY- Medium with some oaky notes and vanilla present

ABV- 7.0%

HOPS- German Magnum

SUGGESTED SERVING TEMPERATURE- 48-52F

FORMATS: Available in 750 ml Cork Finished Bottles and Limited Draft

SUGGESTED FOOD PAIRINGS- Gooze style beers are incredibly rewarding with all manners of stinky cheeses and spring mix salads, there is no one pairing for this beer. Just go with it.
